2026 - The Year of Reading!

In 2026, a national spotlight is being put on reading and on the simplest way to help children enjoy it: connecting it to what they already love. From dinosaurs to dancing, from comics to cooking, passions make stories feel natural and fun.

For families, the National Year of Reading also means more support, more ideas and more opportunities to weave reading into busy routines, whatever age your child is.

Book Suggestions

A BOOK FOR EVERY YEAR GROUP

The Paper Dolls by Julia Donaldson

RECOMMENDED FOR RECEPTION

The Paper Dolls follows a little girl and her handmade paper dolls on a series of playful adventures. It's a book that inspires creativity and invites children to join in with Donaldson's trademark rhythm and charm. It's also a personal favourite in my house - my daughter just loves it, and we were thrilled to find our copy in the school book shop.

Never Tickle a Tiger by Pamela Butchart

RECOMMENDED FOR YEAR 1 AND YEAR 2

Another family favourite that we found at our local library. Never Tickle a Tiger is a lively, laugh-out-loud story that Year 1 and 2 children will love. It follows the wonderfully wiggly Izzy, who simply cannot keep still - especially on a school trip to the zoo. The playful language, bold illustrations, and escalating chaos make it a brilliant read for children to join in with the fun.

The Boy Who Stole the Pharaoh's Lunch by Karen McCombie

RECOMMENDED FOR YEAR 3 AND YEAR 4

The Boy Who Stole the Pharaoh's Lunch is a lively, imaginative story set in the world of Ancient Egypt. The book follows a young boy whose cheeky decision leads to an unexpected adventure, giving children a playful glimpse into Egyptian life (which perfectly extends their current History learning), while reinforcing themes of honesty and responsibility.

Dracula & Daughters by Emma Carroll

RECOMMENDED FOR YEAR 5 AND YEAR 6

Dracula and Daughters is a wonderfully atmospheric read from one of our most popular KS2 authors. This story showcases Emma Carroll's mix of adventure, character depth, and clever twists, as it follows a new generation of characters as they navigate secrets, shadows, and unexpected surprises. Newly published at the end of last year, it's an exciting fresh addition to our Class 3 reading shelf.

Sunrise on the Reaping by Suzanne Collins

RECOMMENDED FOR GROWN UPS

The newest addition to the Hunger Games universe, this is a gripping return to the world of Panem, offering a darker look at the origins of the Hunger Games as we learn Haymitch's story. As a fan of dystopian fiction, I could not put this book down! It's a standout choice for adults who enjoy immersive, high-stakes storytelling. With the film adaptation due for release later this year, now is the perfect time to dive into this newly published instalment.
