2026 - The Year of Reading!

In 2026, a national spotlight is put on reading and on the simplest way to help children enjoy it: connecting it to what they already love. From dinosaurs to dancing, from comics to cooking, passions make stories feel natural and fun.

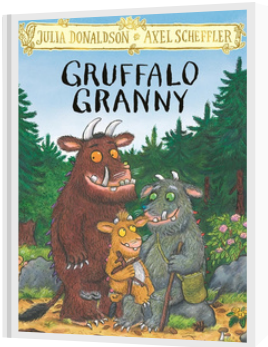

For families, the National Year of Reading also means more support, more ideas and more opportunities to weave reading into busy routines, whatever age your child is.

Book Suggestions

A BOOK FOR EVERY YEAR GROUP, AVAILABLE FROM THE SCHOOL LIBRARY

Gruffalo Granny by Julia Donaldson

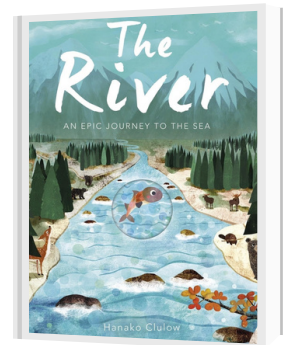

RECOMMENDED FOR RECEPTION

We were so excited to read the brand new Gruffalo's Granny last month, and it is every bit as charming, funny and imaginative as you would hope! My daughter has particularly enjoyed seeing familiar characters and little nods to Donaldson's other stories, such as the Snail and the Whale and Room on the Broom. It feels both fresh and familiar, and has certainly become a firm favourite in our house!

The River: An Epic Journey to the Sea by Hanako Clulow

RECOMMENDED FOR YEAR 1 AND YEAR 2

This is one of those books that I picked up intending to flick through and ended up being captivated by its illustrations and rich language. The story follows a river on its journey to the sea as a little fish travels into the unknown. The language and rhyme make the story a joy to read aloud - it's a truly lovely book to share.

Rabbit & Bear: Rabbit's Bad Habits by Julian Gough & Jim Field

RECOMMENDED FOR YEAR 3 AND YEAR 4

As an early chapter book, this is perfect for children beginning to enjoy longer stories independently. I loved the gentle humour and the wonderfully grumpy Rabbit, whose attempts to avoid eating "healthy" berries don't quite go to plan! The illustrations add even more charm, bringing the characters to life on every page. It's a warm, funny story that had me smiling throughout and left me keen to read the next book in the series.

Impossible Creatures (series) by Katherine Rundell

RECOMMENDED FOR YEAR 5 AND YEAR 6

With the third book in the series, Neverfear, released this summer, I couldn't resist going back and reading the first two books. Impossible Creatures is packed with adventure, magic and unforgettable mythical beasts, but it's Katherine Rundell's brilliant writing that really makes it special. As always, her vivid descriptions and sharp wit create a world full of wonder that is impossible not to get lost in.

Fourth Wing (series) by Rebecca Yarros

RECOMMENDED FOR GROWN UPS

I'll admit, I was a little late to the Fourth Wing phenomenon with its third book released last year, but I completely understand the hype. Set in a brutal dragon-rider academy, it's packed with action, twists and characters you quickly become invested in. The high-stakes challenges, political intrigue and the incredible bond between riders and their dragons. made it one of those books that has you saying, "Just one more chapter..." a few too many times!
